Art League Meetings are Paired with Workshops

A great benefit of our Art League membership is the opportunity to expand the presentations at the meetings with a workshop. The workshops typically are scheduled for the weekend following the monthly meeting. If you are interested in any workshop, see Eileen Hinkle to sign up.

President's Message

The annual Members' Exhibition is always a sign that the season is coming to an end. With that in mind, my two years as president are also ending. I've enjoyed it greatly and I've learned a lot. I've accomplished some of the major things I'd hoped to as president. We've evolved the show to a more modern structure. We've gotten more people involved and volunteering for jobs. We've gotten rid of some things from the past that were holding us back and as we move forward in the future with a new president I hope our group continues to evolve.

To the future,

Krysta

Show News

It's show time again. 74 entries will be dropped off on Tuesday Feb. 6th, hung on Wednesday, and judged on Thursday. Hope you can make it to the opening reception on Friday from 6 - 8 p.m. We will be awarding prizes in all 7 categories plus Best of Show.

ART A FARE

LEMA's annual ART-A-FARE will be occurring on Thursday March 8th, 6 - 9 p.m. This year we are returning to our roots - a tent in front of LEMA, paper bidding in the silent auction, food and wine in the lake room and tables outside by the water. There will also be a DJ and a live auction of some special trips. Tickets are $40, $35 for members. Attending this event is a good way for art league members to thank LEMA for all the support they give us.

Local Art News

New Members

We have three new members since our last meeting: Kelley Batson Howard, Bonnie Lee Jones, and Nancy Kitchen. All of them are participating in the members' show so you will have a chance to meet them and enjoy their artwork.

Name Tags

Please wear your name tags when you come to the members' art show, especially if you are working as a greeter or helping with receiving the art work. It really helps us to get to know each other and make us the friendliest art league.

Call For Volunteers!

Our league is powered by the efforts of our volunteer officers and chairpersons. You can help our club by offering your services. See Verla Goudy or any officer at the meeting if you are interested in being involved.

EAL Annual Show News

Our annual show will take place in the LEMA gallery again this year. This year each member may enter up to 3 pieces of artwork created in the last 3 years. Cost per entry will be $10.

Message From the Registrar of The Members' Show

Please print your information. It will be used for the program and for the display cards.

Keep the third page and place one tag per entry on the back (top right) or bottom of the items.

You must be a member in good standing (fees paid for 2017-2018) to enter but you can join or renew at the January meeting. Please use a separate check for membership fees. Cash is always acceptable.

Remember – you can still bring good art/craft supplies to the meetings to donate to local schools.

Plein Air Painting

Plein Air Painting will resume on Saturday mornings at LEMA. Free to all members. If you have never tried painting outdoors come and give it a try. If there is enough interest we will schedule trips to Venetian Gardens and other parks in our area.

February Meeting & Workshop

Local artist Liz Wincup will give a presentation on Color Theory at the February 10th meeting. Her workshop follows on February 17.

Life Drawing

The life drawing group will continue to meet on Thursday evenings at LEMA from 7 to 9 p.m. (except for March 8th which is ART A FARE night). We now have 4 life models we will use on a rotating basis. Fee is $10 for members, $12 for non-members. All media are welcome.
