President's Message

This is an exciting time for our members. We have seventy-seven entries from thirty artists in our annual members' art show, including many from our newest members.

All the categories will receive awards and I am confident the work will be wonderful.

I am looking forward to seeing all the artwork and enjoying the show. Thank you to all of you who are entering your work but more especially to those who are making the show possible with their planning, set-up work, and monetary contributions.

Verla
