3rd Annual "Show & Sell" Upstaged by Hurricane Matthew

Unfortunate tropical events caused the cancellation of the Show and Sell and also the Lake County Folk Festival. However, the weather was quite nice on Saturday for our October meeting. Pictured here are the loyal EAL members attending. Thanks to Quynn Smith for the photo!

Art League represented at First Friday in Eustis

The Art League and LEMA have partnered at the Eustis Downtown First Friday Street Parties. In addition to manning the art tables, member artists hold a Battle of the Brushes each month. Thanks to Krysta Smith, Richard Colvin, Marvyn Rivett, and Verla Goudy for their efforts in keeping the Art League and LEMA in the public's eye. Be sure and stop by the league tent if you attend the street party on the first Friday of each month

President's Message

Dear Members,

As it starts to cool down and more people arrive from the north, the festivals and events start happening in Lake County. My goal this season as president is to be at as many of these events as possible, in order to grow our membership and offer new and unique experiences to all of you. I hope you'll join me at some of these events.

See you there,

Krysta

November Meeting Presentation

Verla Goudy will present SKETCH A DAY (or "how I managed to complete hundreds of sketches and fill dozens of sketchbooks."). She will share some of her sketches and her strategies for doing a daily sketch, anywhere, anytime, both in graphite and in pen and ink and watercolour. This presentation will be followed by a workshop, the following Saturday, with all materials provided to make your own watercolour sketchbook and fill it with sketches.

Membership

Please welcome Barbara Stichter to the league. She is a snowbird and a golfer. We hope she will enjoy being a member.

The November meeting is usually the final chance to pay your $25.00 and update your membership for the season.

However, Hurricane Matthew made things difficult for all of us and we will not make it difficult for you to renew. We will keep you on the emailing list for the newsletter and other news items. If you cannot make the November meeting, you could mail your membership check to Verla Goudy, 8 Emerald Circle, Eustis, FL 32726. Your membership card will be waiting for you to pick up at the next meeting.
